

Never Slow, Always Sure.

World Index Ads. do their work at once, and waste no time about it.

PRICE ONE CENT.

'TIS A GOOD DAY TO STUDY THE INDEX.

LAST EDITION. FIGHTING FOR THAT L STOCK.

Arguing the Suit to Cancel Barrett's 23,790 Trust Shares.

None of the Expected Sensations Yet Developed.

Argument was resumed at noon today before Judge Bookstaver in the Court of Common Pleas, upon the question of continuing the temporary injunction obtained by C. J. G. Elliott in behalf of stockholders of the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad Company, against Anthony Barrett, restraining him from voting at the annual meeting upon 23,790 shares of stock held by him as trustee, which are claimed to have been illegally issued without any consideration.

The facts alleged in the moving papers were presented yesterday by Attorney Julian T. Davies, for the plaintiff, and replied to by Gen. George F. Wingate, for the defendant.

Mr. Davies today presented additional affidavits in rebuttal of statements contained in the defendant's affidavits. Plaintiff held deposed that no knowledge of the agreement by which Barrett obtained his stock in the company had ever come to him or any other stockholder of the company, and there was no record of any such agreement in the minutes of the stockholders' meetings.

He further stated that, until the beginning of the present action to have the stock held by Barrett cancelled he did not know that Messrs. Lauterbach, Wingate, Pettis, Barrett and others had never contributed a cent to the capital stock of the Brooklyn Construction Company, shares of which stood in their names.

He had always understood, he alleged, and the same was true of the majority of the stockholders, as he averred, that the stock which stood in Barrett's name was held by him as trustee for the benefit of the company, Barrett being a director, in accordance with the practice usually adopted to prevent a majority of the stock from being controlled by such as existed between the Brooklyn Construction Company and the Brooklyn Construction Company.

He also deposed that he had no confidential relations with Henry M. Putnam, the present President of the Brooklyn Elevated Company, nor had any of the other stockholders, and that the syndicate agreement when he subscribed to it, in short, in his affidavit Mr. Hall denied that he or any of the other stockholders had ever ratified the doings of the directors with reference to the arrangements for the purchase of the Brooklyn Construction Company and the Brooklyn Construction Company.

He had received no notice of the transactions of the company, which, he claimed, he had ratified, and declared that he was not present at any meetings of the directors at which these matters were discussed.

Mr. Hall deposed specifically a great many other statements contained in the affidavits of Mr. Barrett, which he had read and had read in behalf of the defendant.

Up to the present point, nothing has come out of the case which would lead to the belief that the stock which stood in Barrett's name was held by him as trustee for the benefit of the company, and that the syndicate agreement when he subscribed to it, in short, in his affidavit Mr. Hall denied that he or any of the other stockholders had ever ratified the doings of the directors with reference to the arrangements for the purchase of the Brooklyn Construction Company and the Brooklyn Construction Company.

He had received no notice of the transactions of the company, which, he claimed, he had ratified, and declared that he was not present at any meetings of the directors at which these matters were discussed.

Mr. Hall deposed specifically a great many other statements contained in the affidavits of Mr. Barrett, which he had read and had read in behalf of the defendant.

Up to the present point, nothing has come out of the case which would lead to the belief that the stock which stood in Barrett's name was held by him as trustee for the benefit of the company, and that the syndicate agreement when he subscribed to it, in short, in his affidavit Mr. Hall denied that he or any of the other stockholders had ever ratified the doings of the directors with reference to the arrangements for the purchase of the Brooklyn Construction Company and the Brooklyn Construction Company.

He had received no notice of the transactions of the company, which, he claimed, he had ratified, and declared that he was not present at any meetings of the directors at which these matters were discussed.

Mr. Hall deposed specifically a great many other statements contained in the affidavits of Mr. Barrett, which he had read and had read in behalf of the defendant.

Up to the present point, nothing has come out of the case which would lead to the belief that the stock which stood in Barrett's name was held by him as trustee for the benefit of the company, and that the syndicate agreement when he subscribed to it, in short, in his affidavit Mr. Hall denied that he or any of the other stockholders had ever ratified the doings of the directors with reference to the arrangements for the purchase of the Brooklyn Construction Company and the Brooklyn Construction Company.

He had received no notice of the transactions of the company, which, he claimed, he had ratified, and declared that he was not present at any meetings of the directors at which these matters were discussed.

Mr. Hall deposed specifically a great many other statements contained in the affidavits of Mr. Barrett, which he had read and had read in behalf of the defendant.

Up to the present point, nothing has come out of the case which would lead to the belief that the stock which stood in Barrett's name was held by him as trustee for the benefit of the company, and that the syndicate agreement when he subscribed to it, in short, in his affidavit Mr. Hall denied that he or any of the other stockholders had ever ratified the doings of the directors with reference to the arrangements for the purchase of the Brooklyn Construction Company and the Brooklyn Construction Company.

He had received no notice of the transactions of the company, which, he claimed, he had ratified, and declared that he was not present at any meetings of the directors at which these matters were discussed.

Mr. Hall deposed specifically a great many other statements contained in the affidavits of Mr. Barrett, which he had read and had read in behalf of the defendant.

Up to the present point, nothing has come out of the case which would lead to the belief that the stock which stood in Barrett's name was held by him as trustee for the benefit of the company, and that the syndicate agreement when he subscribed to it, in short, in his affidavit Mr. Hall denied that he or any of the other stockholders had ever ratified the doings of the directors with reference to the arrangements for the purchase of the Brooklyn Construction Company and the Brooklyn Construction Company.

He had received no notice of the transactions of the company, which, he claimed, he had ratified, and declared that he was not present at any meetings of the directors at which these matters were discussed.

Mr. Hall deposed specifically a great many other statements contained in the affidavits of Mr. Barrett, which he had read and had read in behalf of the defendant.

Up to the present point, nothing has come out of the case which would lead to the belief that the stock which stood in Barrett's name was held by him as trustee for the benefit of the company, and that the syndicate agreement when he subscribed to it, in short, in his affidavit Mr. Hall denied that he or any of the other stockholders had ever ratified the doings of the directors with reference to the arrangements for the purchase of the Brooklyn Construction Company and the Brooklyn Construction Company.

He had received no notice of the transactions of the company, which, he claimed, he had ratified, and declared that he was not present at any meetings of the directors at which these matters were discussed.

Mr. Hall deposed specifically a great many other statements contained in the affidavits of Mr. Barrett, which he had read and had read in behalf of the defendant.

Up to the present point, nothing has come out of the case which would lead to the belief that the stock which stood in Barrett's name was held by him as trustee for the benefit of the company, and that the syndicate agreement when he subscribed to it, in short, in his affidavit Mr. Hall denied that he or any of the other stockholders had ever ratified the doings of the directors with reference to the arrangements for the purchase of the Brooklyn Construction Company and the Brooklyn Construction Company.

MINISTERS' EXPLAINING DAY.

Personal Statements Made in the Methodist Conference.

$1,000 Offered for the Discovery of the Anonymous Letter Writer.

Although the explanation of Rev. Dr. J. M. King was received by the Methodist Conference with general satisfaction and the matter of further investigation of the anonymous defamatory letters had been indefinitely postponed, the question came up again this morning, when F. Mason North asked to make an explanation.

His name, he said, had been mentioned yesterday in a delicate matter introduced by Dr. King.

It was Mr. North, concerning whom the anonymous letter had been sent to Mr. Bowles Colgate, concerning the authorship of which Dr. King had kept silent. Dr. King knew who wrote it, but he stated publicly that he did not believe the contents.

These set forth that Mr. North had been named as co-defendant in a divorce suit involving two prominent families.

Mr. North said: "I am informed that the impression has been created in some minds, by statements made yesterday afternoon on this floor, that I am in some way concerned in or related to a matter which was referred to by Rev. Dr. King as having been reported to him in confidence."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

"I desire to say, in justice to myself, that any statements directly or indirectly implicating me in conduct reflecting in any way on my character as a man or as a Christian minister, are without a shadow of foundation in truth, and I call on any person, in or out of this conference, who has knowledge of any facts in my life calling for defense or explanation, to make them public and give me an opportunity of refuting any charges derogatory to my reputation as a Christian minister."

BLOWN INTO ATOMS.

Nine Russian Workmen Perish at a Smokeless Powder Factory.

Frightful Explosion That Jars Houses for Miles Around.

Inquest Begun Over Murderer Dealing's Australian Victim.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 5.—This city was thrown into a state of the most intense excitement last night by a most terrific explosion. So much has been heard here lately of the fiendish work of Anarchists that for a time every one believed that they had attempted to destroy some of the public buildings.

It was soon learned, however, that the explosion was due to an accident at the state factory for the manufacture of smokeless powder, where five tons of gun cotton had exploded.

The shock was tremendous. The whole city was shaken, and houses away from the foundations as though from the effects of an earthquake.

The building in which the gun cotton had been stored was blown into splinters.

Nine workmen were in the building when the explosion took place and everyone of them was blown to pieces. Some of their limbs were found 200 yards away from the building.

A mile and a quarter away from the scene were made to oscillate by the shock of the explosion. Windows were shattered, and crockery and glassware were thrown to the floor and smashed. The loss from these causes alone will be quite heavy.

There is no possibility of ascertaining how the explosion occurred, as every man in the gun cotton building is dead. It is thought that it was due to carelessness.

MURDERER DEEMING LAUGHS AT THE INQUEST OVER HIS WIFE'S BODY.

MELBOURNE, April 15.—The inquest upon the body of Mrs. Deeming, formerly Miss Maher, which was found buried beneath the floor of the house occupied by the prisoner, dealing, a snuff of this city, and for whose murder Deeming is now in custody, opened in the City Court room today.

Throughout the hearing Deeming wore a careless air, and on several occasions he laughed loudly at some of the statements made by the witnesses.

Later details regarding Deeming's arrest show that he was taken into custody at the Southern Cross gold fields, where he was employed as an engineer at Fraser's gold mine.

Revolt of Convicts in Granada—One Prisoner Killed.

MADRID, April 5.—A despatch from Granada, capital of the province of that name in Andalusia, states that a serious revolt occurred among the convicts in the prison there, caused by the Director of Labor at the prison giving certain orders regarding work, which the prisoners refused to obey.

The gardener fired under orders and one of the convicts was instantly killed and two were fatally wounded.

The Director of Labor, whose treatment of the convicts caused the outbreak, will be dismissed from his position. The chief warder, who is also responsible to a certain extent for the mutinous spirit displayed by the convicts, will be discharged.

Argentine Still Quiet—Possible Reaction Against Pellegrini.

LONDON, April 5.—A special despatch to the Times from Buenos Ayres says: "Although the energetic action of the Government has produced a good effect there will be a strong reaction against President Pellegrini, unless the intemperate charges against the radical leaders made in the decree declaring a state of siege are retractable."

The commercial community, and in fact, the community in general, appear to have almost divorced themselves from the political battle, and now that they consider Saenzpeta's election as President assured, they are conducting their business as usual.

PROVING BETTS INSANE.

Experts Testify as to the Mental Condition of Blith's Slayer.

WHITE PLAINS, April 5.—The examination into the sanity of Henry L. Betts, who killed Charles L. Blith, proprietor of the Eagle Hotel in Peekskill, was resumed today before Judge Dykman.

Dr. J. T. Fisher testified that Betts had, in 1870, been for several months confined in an asylum for the insane in Massachusetts.

Dr. C. W. McDonald gave testimony to the same effect.

STORMS' WORK HERE AND THERE.

LEO DALE IS KILLED BY LIGHTNING AT ENGLEWOOD, ILL.

ARIZONA. RICKVILLE, ILL., TAKES A CENITIC OF THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK AND THE FRONT OF THREE STORES.

GRANT COUNTY, WIS., HAS A POLE, FENCE AND GREAT DAMAGE TO A CROPPING TORNADO. NO LIVES LOST.

THE STREETS OF ARIZONA, ILL., ARE RUNNING RIVERS. HEAVY DAMAGE BY CYCLONE AND RAIN ACROSS THE LOWER PART OF THE STATE.

THOUSANDS OF CATTLE HAVE PERISHED FROM COLD AND STARVATION IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY. THE LOSS IS $300,000 PER ANNUM.

A CYCLONE AT BRISTOL, ILL., DAMAGED THE PRESIDENTIAL HOTEL AND DESTROYED A NUMBER OF BARNES, KILLING SEVERAL PERSONS.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR EGAN.

McCreery to Act as Charge d'Affaires at Santiago.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—It was said at the Department of State that Minister Egan has been granted leave of absence to visit the United States, and that Secretary McCreery will act as Charge d'Affaires until the Minister returns to his post at Santiago.

11 HOURS IN A DRIFT.

Awful Blizzard Experience of Two Colorado Girls.

Storms Increasingly Violent in Minnesota and Dakota.

Great Floods Threatened—Widespread Damage by Wind and Rain.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 5.—Charles Rosenquest, P. J. Gorbard and Joseph Close, together with Rosenquest's two daughters, have been temporarily living in a barn, awaiting the completion of their farmhouse, which is being built twenty miles south of here.

At 8 o'clock yesterday morning a heavy wind blew the barn over, carrying it clear of the ground for a distance of twenty feet, and as the barn had no floor, it left the victims lying exposed to the severe elements of the storm, their beds scattered to the wind and their clothes torn away from them, until finally the blinding snow covered them in a drift.

Mr. Rosenquest managed to tell his two daughters to lie still, while he succeeded in keeping a hole open through the drift to keep them from smothering to death. The other two men lay ten feet away, but did not know what was going on, as they were wrapped up in the blinding rain and snow.

A cyclone in the afternoon the storm stopped just in time to save the lives of the two girls, who were carried to a tree behind some boards, and they finally succeeded in alleviating their sufferings. The intense cold froze their limbs, fingers and feet, but all will recover.

This last storm has been raging here since Sunday. The loss of cattle and horses is terrible.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., April 5.—The storm is growing more violent every hour. A furious blizzard is raging north, the wind sweeping over the prairie area tremendous velocity, accompanied by volumes of drifting snow. Over a foot of snow has fallen.

Many have let their supply of wood dwindle during the recent warm weather. If many lives are not sacrificed it will be provided.

ABBETT SAYS NO.

New Jersey's Governor Vetoes the Bill Which Legalized the Reading Coal Trust.

He Believes that the Measure Is Unconstitutional.

Reasons Stated in a Memorandum Filed at Trenton To-Day.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT HAS NO EFFECT IN WALL STREET, WHERE IT HAS BEEN PRACTICALLY DISCOUNTED.